

Saint-Romain

Christophe Buisson

Red Wine - Pinot noir

The Saint-Romain comes from a terroir located at the entrance of the village of Saint-Romain, just below the ruins of a medieval castle (dismantled after the Revolution) overlooking the village from a rocky promontory.

The vines are about thirty years old.

The wine is aged in oak barrels.

