Santenay Clos de Saint-Jean

Domaine Philippe Colin

Red Wine - Pinot noir

Surface Area: 53a 15ca
Average Age of Vines: 20 years
Exposure/Soil: Exposed North-East / South-West, the Santenay Clos de Saint-Jean (village appellation) is a square plot located at the start of a slope. Planted on clay-limestone soil, the vines are about twenty years old and are pruned in simple Guyot.
Vinification/Ageing: 100% destemming, cold pre-fermentation maceration, ageing in 500-liter barrels (20% new barrels).
Production: 3,265 bottles.

© 2026 Bertrand's Wines. www.bertrandswines.com - contact@bertrandswines.com